GET IN THE SWIM

Once again the Town Council is providing transport to Crook swimming baths on five Wednesdays during the school holidays. As an additional feature for this year, arrangements are being made for an outing to the "Wet 'n Wild Water Park on North Tyneside. This trip will take place on the remaining Wednesday of the holidays, and full details will be given by public notices as soon as arrangements are complete. In the meantime, please contact the Town Clerk or the community workers at the Community Centre, either in person or by calling 731444 if you need any further information
